

No	Profile	Learning Outcomes
1	Complex Library Material Manager	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>• Be able to describe the physical details and class numbers of library materials with various standards for managing library materials manually and electronically</li> <li>• Able to verify physical and academic (content) regarding the eligibility of library materials for users</li> </ul>
2	Library Manager	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>• Able to verify physical and academic (content) regarding the eligibility of library materials for users</li> <li>• Able to theoretically master the management of various types of libraries</li> </ul>
3	Digital Content Service Manager	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>• Able to master digital content governance concepts and creative process concepts for producing and distributing digital content and understand the rules of juridical aspects.</li> </ul>
4	Library Management Information System Manager	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>• Able to handle and monitor the operation of a system that implemented in a library</li> </ul>

		<ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>• Able to provide library comprehensive data request services</li> <li>• Able to master the concepts of digital content governance and the concepts of the creative process of creating and distributing digital content and understand the rules of juridical aspects.</li> </ul>
5	Library Network Collaboration Manager	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>• Mastering the concepts regarding network planning, implementation and control library.</li> <li>• Able to identify the utilization and potentials of network formation library local and regional</li> </ul>
6	File and document manager	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>• Manage archives and documents both conventionally and electronically to contribute to the institution.</li> <li>• Able to classify archives and documents based on standard archive processing and document.</li> </ul>

